IT FEELS GOOD

... to be home after serving Uncle Sam some 12 days. But from the looks of the two papers published while I was gone, I really can't see where I was needed.

The Staff did a fine job; fine enough, in fact, that I think I might just take a vacation and let them have a hand at it again. And I might tell them what the boss told the party hosts at the home office:

"My greatest gift from you is the knowledge that I can leave here knowing everyone will make a little more effort than when I am here!"

THE GREATEST MISCARRIAGE

... of justice in the history of our country occurred in Los Angeles this past week when a jury of supposedly intelligent (and allegedly Americans) people found Angela Davis innocent on all charges against her.

Her actions were tied into the overall picture of events where three people were brutally murdered and yet a jury, everyone of which hugged her neck in front of millions of television viewers and one gave the clinched fist sign, found her innocent.

I would hate to be in any of the jurors' shoes and have to explain my actions to the families of those victims.

We'll also be paying taxes for a long time to pay for the high costs of a trial that only allowed a woman to go free so that she can defy the laws of a land she hates.

UNCLE RAY JENNINGS

... was extremely agitated this week over the quality of the movies now being produced. "They might be rated for the general public," he said, "but they still are filled with foul words and actions."

He feels the public has a responsibility. "Why don't you write your Representatives, Senators (both State and National) and Governor? he asks. "Ask for their help in cleaning up the movie industry. Penalize the producers."

Then cast your vote according to the response you get from those in office."

He feels, and I concur, that the words and actions seen by our children in movies and on television will definitely help develop their character traits for adult life.

Most people will agree with Uncle Ray, but few will do nothing but sit back and complain. How about Hondo?

DRY WEATHER

... always makes one think of rain, or that is most people. But it's the change of the moon that brings on thoughts of precipitation to Doc Taylor. Take this coming Sunday morning, for instance. Doc says there is an early morning (5:30 a.m.) moon change that he hopes means a chance of rain. So we'll see.

Briscoe wins

Medina County voters returned to the polls Saturday, June 3, to defy statewide trends in two of the five state and district races. Total votes cast numbered 3895 for Medina County, more than were polled in the 1970 primary election, and only 1558 short of the record total of this May's primary.

One statewide trend that Medina Countians did agree with was that of Dolph Briscoe over Frances (Sissy) Farenthold. Briscoe polled 2929 votes in Medina County to Farenthold's 940, better than a 3-1 margin.

Robert Calvert, another state winner and the incumbent for Comptroller, won handily over James Wilson in the County, by a 2439-1184 count.

County sentiments were even more decisive than those district-wide in the State Senatorial contest between John Traeger of Seguin and Oscar Carrillo of Benavides. Traeger received only a 36,594-32,035 victory, compared to 2756-991 in the County.

County voters backed two losing causes as they gave a bare victory to Ralph Yarborough and a solid one to Wayne Connally. U.S. Senatorial candidate Yarborough received 1903 votes to Barefoot Sanders' 1892, but Sanders won statewide. Interestingly, Yarborough, a liberal, won in a county vote which went strongly conservative in other races.

Connally, running for Lieutenant Governor, took 2229 votes compared to 1662 for his opponent Bill Hobby, but Hobby carried sufficient strength elsewhere to win the nomination for the number two spot in Texas government.

In the single precinct race, H. H. Rabe defeated Leroy Eardley 767-543 for Constable of Pct. 5.

In another turn-around of sorts, Republican gubernatorial candidate Albert Fay carded an 8-6 victory over Henry Grover in Medina County while losing to Grover statewide.

Open House at Ranch Store

The James Tschirhart family expects to have plenty of guests this weekend--at their business, The Ranch Store.

They have planned a three-day Open House to show off the new 2,000 square feet addition to their store and at the same time let the public see how the new addition has changed the entire store.

Slated for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 8, 9 and 10, the Open House will feature fine, money saving bargains on The Ranch Store's two main lines of RCA televisions and Whirlpool appliances.

"We also want the public to see our service department, which is a main portion of our business," owner Tschirhart said.

Added icing to the Open House cake will be refreshments and the opportunity to register for a grand prize of an 18-inch RCA color television set. No purchase is necessary.

James and Aurline Tschirhart first began their family owned and operated business 18 years ago at 1102 18th St. Then in 1963 they built the present store which their newest addition has expanded to 7,000 square feet of space.

Panthers win Regional

The Medina Valley Panthers captured their second straight Regional Baseball championship Tuesday night at Seguin with a 14-3 win over Kenedy.

The Panthers jumped on two Kenedy pitchers in the first inning for seven runs and five hits, then coasted to the victory. Winning pitcher Maxie Groff had allowed only one infield hit going in to the seventh inning, when Kenedy scored all three of their runs and five of their six hits. Jack Speake, the first of a total of three Kenedy pitchers, received the loss.

The Panthers compiled ten hits, plus a perfect nine steals in nine attempts. Wayne Iltis led the Panther attack with three hits including a two-run homer. Pitcher Maxie Groff, Mark Lagleder and Glynn Tschirhart each had two hits.

The win was the 22nd of the year for the Panthers against only six losses. Kenedy finishes its season at 23-7.

Last year the Panthers beat Calallen for the regional crown, and the previous year they lost in the finals, to Columbus. This marks the third consecutive appearance in the Regional finals for Medina Valley.

In its article, the Red Star charged; "U.S. military specialists pin great hopes on dolphins. Navy experts believe that a dolphin carrying explosives can detect an enemy submarine and then ram it and blow it up."

The article said Pentagon animal trainers also have experimented with sea gulls in submarine detection.

Red Star continued: "It is known that the first consignments of skunks, small animals with an evil smell, Actually, the Navy, I am told, performed the experiments at Hondo Airbase and one did get loose and set a hangar on fire. But not a "military field" as the Russians claim.

Bats, however, were not the only secret weapons the Russians say the U.S. is planning use in a move described by Red Star as "the ultimate in moral degradation."

Others include: dolphins, sea gulls and skunks.

The story claimed all of this was planned for use in Vietnam, but Jake Schuehle will tell you the story is 28 years old or older.

"Our Navy made these experiments with bats from our caves during World War II," Jake told me one time when we were discussing the bat caves as a possible area tourist attraction.

"They caught many bats for the experiments," he said. "But, we never did know what their final decision was."

Kramaya Zevezda--Red Star--as charging "the United States made attempts to use bats for setting fire to enemy population centers by carrying with them small incendiary bombs".

"A special decree by the U.S. president allocated $2 million for this secret weapon code-named "Bat" the article said. "Operation Bat ended in failure when a bat carrying an incendiary bomb set fire to a U.S. military base."

In today's high-gear war of propaganda and counter-propaganda, one never knows who is ahead or behind when the United States and Russia are compared.

But a recent story dated Moscow will quickly bring a yell of "Russia is far behind" from Jake Schuehle, his family and other local area folks who know about the bat caves on Schuehle's land north of Hondo near Tarpley.

City Recreation Program to begin

Director Richard Adams will again open the Hondo Summer Recreational Program in the Lacy Gym, to run seven weeks starting June 12.

Activities in the City-sponsored program include tournaments in washer-throwing, ping-pong, base-running, checkers, tetherball, badminton, ball-throwing, and horse-shoes. Winners will receive first, second and third place ribbons each Friday.

At the program's end, points will be awarded for ribbons, and the high-point member of each division will be awarded a trophy. Divisions are classed by age in three groups: 6-8 year-olds, 9-11 year-olds and 12-14 year-olds. Boys and girls will compete separately.

Additional activities include arts and crafts, led by Genevieve Adams, assisted by Reggie Pedroza and Arlene Garcia. This program will have plaster of Paris molding, painting, and cut-outs, for all age groups. Each child in the arts and crafts program is required to bring 50¢ to cover costs of supplies.

Adams reports that last summer's attendance averaged 100 youths per day, up from the year before, when 89 showed up daily on the average. This year's total is likely to exceed all past records, as the program is still growing.

Bru and Frances Miller of Hondo are riding on Cloud 9 (no, that's an LTD) after winning this car in a state-wide contest sponsored by the Texas State Federation of Square & Round Dancers. The winning ticket, sold by Mrs. Jo Anne Fessler of the Hondo Country Squares, was one of 41,000 sold over the state and then pulled out of the box at the state convention in Fort Worth. The San Antonio Square Dance Association President Glenn Pittman presents the keys for the car to the Millers at a gathering at City Park Tuesday evening.

Dear Burns,

Thank you so much for the photo. It (along with the write-up in the paper) is on display at the school. We have 109 students registered and I dare say that the majority of them know all about Hondo, since my plate and write-up about the depot are also on display.

Could you send me a copy of the Herald that came out the weekend after Museum Day (I think the date of the issue was May 12) -- and when you have no further use of the negative with me and the Indian Chief, may I have it?

Thanks again for the photo and we're looking forward to next year and perhaps I can buy a piggle.

TWQB proposal submitted

Hondo city officials have submitted to the Texas Water Quality Board a municipal water pollution control and abatement proposal, as required by the Legislature in Senate Bill 835 passed last year. Deadline for receipt of the proposals by cities of 5,000 population and more, was May 1. The law affects 230 cities in the state, though only 150 made the May 1 deadline.

The proposal will be reviewed by the TWQB staff in Austin for final approval at a later date.

The legislation requires all cities in the 5,000 or more population bracket to form their own water pollution control and abatement programs, and to be responsible for the surveillance and enhancement of water quality problems within their city limits. Programs also may extend to a city's extra territorial jurisdiction, though the latter is not a requirement. In addition, the law gives all cities, regardless of size, the right to monitor, inspect and sample possible water pollution discharges, as well as the right to enforce penalties associated with violations, though smaller cities are not required to do so.

The TWQB is charged, by the legislation, with the responsibility of assisting and advising the cities in the implementation of the program. Sam Slaughter, program director for the TWQB, during March and April, met with representatives of the cities concerned, through the state's 24 Councils of Government to explain the program, and to offer the help of the TWQB.

In essence, the legislation simply requires that water pollution control responsibilities and powers already existing be carried out on a systematic basis, and within a program considered satisfactory by the TWQB technical staff. Cities are required to make an inventory of all significant waste dischargers; conduct regular monitoring of waste discharges, including inspections and sampling; develop a procedure for obtaining compliance, including legal enforcement if necessary; and to plan pollution abatement from such sources as runoff from streets, parking lots and other urban facilities.

"While, generally speaking, water pollution control still rests with the state agency, it has long been our experience that laws enforced at a local level tend to stay enforced," said Hugh Yantis, TWQB Executive Director. "There is a matter of civic pride involved, which, in sum, speaks well for our state," he emphasized, adding that "the Water Quality Board stands ready to lend assistance to any cities which need help in setting up their local programs."

Outbreak of screwworms still increasing in county

By Glenn Bragg

The heaviest outbreak of screwworms in the history of the Screwworm Eradication Program is occurring in Texas and Medina County.

According to Glenn Bragg, County Agricultural Agent, 4,382 cases have been confirmed in Texas this Spring as of May 27. Medina County has recorded 98 cases with an estimated 35 additional cases this week says the county agent.

At the present time Mission officials are dropping flies in a grid pattern at ten-mile intervals twice a week in Medina County.

Since so many cases are being confirmed officials are unable to mark ranches with confirmed cases. However, it is vital that all animals be inspected closely and regularly so infestations can be determined.

Although sterile fly production at the Mission Lab is running its peak, 200 million a week, treatment with these flies is not enough to stop the destructive, flesh-eating pest.

Planes are dropping 1,600 flies per square mile in Medina County each week.

Bragg urges all livestock producers and owners of other animals to follow these precautions:

1. Carry out all approved preventive practices to help eliminate screwworms.

2. Inspect animals regularly and carefully and treat all wounds whether they are wormy or not.

3. Delay all surgery until cool weather this fall. Studies show that almost 90 percent of all worm samples come from calf navels and man-made wounds.

4. Spray animals with an approved product before shipping them. This is a preventive measure against spreading the infestation.

5. Be cautious of livestock shipments coming from infested areas. If buying such animals, be sure to check them thoroughly for worm wounds.

6. Care should be taken not to move infested livestock across state lines. Infestations resulting from this practice may bring about a quarantine and the regulated movement of livestock.

7. As soon as a wormy wound is found, send a worm sample to the Screwworm Laboratory, Box 969, Mission, Texas 78572.

Flies are not available from the County Extension Office. Flies were distributed in this manner a few weeks ago because inclement weather had grounded planes in Mission.

"Everyone must cooperate if the screwworm eradication program is to be effective," emphasizes Bragg. "This means farmers, ranchers, pet owners, auction managers and others who work with or own animals."

Natalia to host 1973 stock show

The Medina County Junior Livestock Show Association met recently to make plans for the 1973 Stock Show.

Natalia agreed to host the 1973 County Show which will be held February 5 and 6, 1973.

Officers elected for the 1973 Show are James Barta, president; John Law, vice-president; B. C. McDonald, treasurer; and Glenn Bragg, secretary.

1973 Directors will be Bly--Louis Wernette; Castroville--Larry Haby and Lynn Boehme; Devine--Hartley Howard, Jack Tilley and John Watson; Yancey--Howard Wiemers; D'Hanis--Lawrence Rothe and John Ney.

Also, Hondo--Robert Zuberbuehler, Ralph Gilliam and Bill Moos; Dunlay--Edson Oefinger; Quilhi--Chester Saathoff; Natalia--B. C.

McDonald and James Barta; Rio Medina--Clarence Wurzbach; and LaCoste--C. J. Keller, Jr. and John C. Biediger, Jr.

The Association decided to ask Jack Lacy of Lampasas to judge the 1973 Steer Show.

Two rule changes were made by the group. Lambs must be weighed without halters or blankets and entries in the Commercial Calf division will not be considered as an entry in the Premium Show.

A committee was appointed to check into the feasibility of renting the new show barn.

President James Barta will check into the possibility of purchasing additional bleachers. Plans were made to build additional steel panels to be used in the Swine Division.

Hondoans line up to receive bass

Hondo's area ranchers should have better fishing in the future, thanks to a new shipment of bass fry from the Devine hatchery Thursday, June 1.

Hardin Wunderlich, who distributed the fish to some 30 Hondoans, said they should be "good eating" in a year or so, as they will gain over a pound per year.

Hondo was the third stop on an agenda which began at LaCoste and Castroville and continued on to D'Hanis, Sabin, Uvalde and Brackettville. Wunderlich expected each stop to serve 20 to 30 customers.

About 300 fish were distributed to each applicant, who had been instructed to bring a large container of clean, non-chlorinated water for transport to his tank.

Two die of past Hondo auto injuries

Two men died over the weekend of injuries received in Hondo city traffic accidents during the past 60 days. They are William V. Hall, 55, of San Antonio, and Howard Wilson, Jr., 43, of Kerrville.

Hall was seriously injured last week when his pick-up truck slammed into a bridge guard rail near the Hondo

National Guard Armory. Rushed to a San Antonio hospital, he was reported in serious condition until the time of his death. Hall suffered severe head and chest injuries and lost a leg in the accident.

Wilson died of injuries received when his auto was struck by a Southern Pacific freight train at the Ave. K crossing on April 10th. Wilson was reported in satisfactory condition after the accident but apparently died of complications from the mishap.

Their deaths were the second and third recorded in the City of Hondo during 1972. The other death involved another car-train collision earlier this year. The city recorded no traffic deaths during 1971.

Police Chief Jerry Williamson said there have actually been fewer traffic accidents during 1972 than during a comparable period last year, but mishaps this year have been of a more serious nature. Meanwhile, officers continued their crack-down on traffic offenders this weekend with over 60 traffic-related arrests made between Friday night and Monday morning. Williamson said a similar number of warnings were also issued.

LEGALIZE MARIJUANA - WHY?

By Jerry Williamson
Chief of Police
City of Hondo

WHAT'S ALL THE FUSS ABOUT?

Most people in the U.S. today have read reams of information on the national drug abuse problem. The highlights, the big impressions, stay with most of us while much of the data winds up in our mental closets.

This is article #1 in a series of six "talks" I wish to have with the community on the subject of marijuana. I feel this necessary and timely due to recent developments and suggestions being made by various national committees and organizations. Some of these groups were assigned the task of determining the actual true facts on whether marijuana should or should not be legalized.

Recently The National Committee on Marijuana and Drug Abuse has completed, at least in part, a nation wide survey on marijuana. Suggestions are now coming from this group which would ultimately "decriminalize" the use of this drug. The committee is recommending that the use of the drug be discouraged, but should not be a crime in the "privacy of the home."

Government and private researchers have for several years been laboring extensively to prove marijuana to have harmful physical effects on the body. Thus far this has not been established with certainty. While scientific study has progressed, the marijuana users have been having a ball smoking their "grass", and using it in other ways, laughing at the establishment's efforts. And, taking their punishments when apprehended.

If, in fact, it is finally proved, that marijuana has no real and lasting ill effects on the physical health of the body, one is prone to wonder "what then is all the fuss about now?" Why should we get excited about something that hasn't been proved harmful, as yet, and why should we continue to carry the use and abuse of this drug on the books as illegal?

More and more it is beginning to appear that perhaps the question of legalizing marijuana will eventually come up on the ballot. If this happens every voter is going to have to be ready to make a wise decision. If the matter never comes up for a vote, public opinion, even the conversations in small private gatherings, are going to have an effect on which way the government turns on this issue.

The purpose of this series of articles, which will extend over the next six weeks, is to examine the effects marijuana has on its users . . . effects other than physical harm to the user himself. In short, I want to share with every person in this community facts they should know about the drug; reactions to use, case histories of a few users, side-effects to the user and those around him.

We have all heard the loud protests of the young, and even some older people, that they have been unfairly treated in connection with the use of marijuana . . . that it should not be a crime to use it . . . that it should be made a matter of personal choice. All this based on misguided opinion that marijuana is just sort of a "fun thing." I think we in the "establishment" are fed up with this type of nonsense. However, the only way we can change this course is to arm ourselves with facts!

The courts across the land are heavily burdened with the handling of cases involving marijuana. This cost to the taxpayer alone is staggering. Legalizing marijuana would, of course, immediately relieve the situation, but what would we be exchanging the problem for? What other problems would come up which could be far more devastating? Standardize the laws on marijuana, perhaps even making them less harsh for first offenders . . . but legalize it, NEVER!

New home for United Gas

Mayor George Brucks snipped the blue ribbon on the door to open the new Hondo office of the United Gas Co., in an official grand opening held Friday morning.

On hand were division and district managers of United Gas Co., local representative David McGraw, city officials, and many interested Hondoans, who came to admire the new facilities.

Part of the festivities included a drawing for a gas-operated grill, a gas light for the yard, and a huge, gas-cooked turkey. Here in Hondo

Mike and Ginny Ball, Jeff and Tina returned safely to Amarillo Sunday after a busy week.

This week

That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

Big, wide-eyed Texas-size bright blue morning glories covering a 15th Street fence helped get this week off to a cheery start for me.

Elsewhere about town I noted climbing roses spilling over trellises, venturing up tree trunks. One very civic-minded red rubber sprawled across some battered old garbage cans in a neglected alley, offering apology for the exposed litter.

All in all, June is here but we must wait until June 21 for the official beginning of summer, says the calendar.

Perhaps one of the reasons for dividing the year into four seasons is so that we can choose our 'druthers.

Mrs. THEO CAMERON says most emphatically that her favorite is winter. "I can always put on enough clothes to keep warm when the weather is cold. But, I wouldn't dare take off enough to keep cool when summer turns on the heat!"

Cliff, younger of the two sons of COLBY JOE and CAPPI HEYEN, is also a dedicated fisherman after the heart of ISAAK (The Compleat Angler) WALTON.

A year or so ago while fly fishing at Medina Lake, a miscalculated back cast imbedded the fly in Cliff's scalp. He returned to the family cottage to get help in removing the hook but protested vociferously when his father said it would be necessary to clip the barb first.

"No way," said the young angler. "That's a new fly and it cost good money and I want to use it again right now. The fish are biting!"

With mixed emotions about her son's sense of thrift, Cippi held his head while Colby applied a sharp razor blade for the surgery. Cliff headed back to his favorite cove -- and caught another fish!

AMALIA (Mollie) SAATHOFF is one of my good friends whose happy humor gives me a lift any time. Recently she called a neighbor and left this message: "Tengo que ring-iarle mañana."

I grew up in Laredo where Tex-Mex is the international language. Some words just won't translate any other way!

Although I have been the proud possessor of the degree of Honorary Chapter Farmer since April 28, 1966, when our Hondo FFA conferred it during the presidency of OLIN GILLIAM, the certificate has failed to impress the army of insect pests that defeat my futile attempts at home gardening.

So, it is with grateful appreciation that I acknowledge the many generous gifts of home-grown vegetables and fruit from my more successful gardener friends who include the VAN HERRODS, GERTIE CARLE, JUDY HEILIGMAN, HELENE WOLLSCHLAAGER, DOROTHY JONES, GUS WEYNAND, the C. B. GASTONS, SCOTT and JAMES PEDEN. Bless their green thumbs and generosity!

Gertie Carle defines gardening thus: "Sowing, spraying, weeding, praying, digging, raking, mostly aching." She claims no credit for the jingle but it does seem applicable.

Whether she will ever become a successful architect or not is beside the point, as far as TERRI SPIKER, diminutive daughter of ANN, and granddaughter of MARTHA PICKTHALL, is concerned.

When her art class at St. John's was commissioned to draw pictures of Noah's Ark, Terri's included a television antenna.

How else was Noah to get the daily weather reports?

Classified ads are a weigh-of-life at the AN-VIL HERALD. Busy on paste-up for that section of the paper, NITA HACKEBEL noted, "Here's one offering to trade one pig for two ewes. Wonder how about two ME's?" she asked.

WINNIE BRADEN's quick comeback: "Probably one ME of either one of us would be one too many to seal the deal!"

Long-ago ads in this paper contained such items as "Fascinators, corset covers, cotton lace stockings, sad irons, floor matting, rubber collars & cuffs for particular gents, and nice ladies collars."

Nostalgia sets in when I remember all these things. Having lived through them, I have no yearning for a return of THOSE "good old days".

'Come Blow Your Horn' scheduled at Point Theatre

"Come Blow Your Horn", the long-run New York hit comedy about a playboy who is too successful in showing his kid brother how to be a Don Juan, has been scheduled as the opening attraction at the Point Theatre in Ingram. With Richard McWilliams in the role of playboy Alan Baker the light comedy will open June 7 and continue for ten performances through June 18. McWilliams is from Baytown.

This first play by Neil Simon is the comic tale of a father who wants his sons to settle down to being good businessmen, in his waxed fruit business, and to get married and provide him with some grandsons. His elder son, Alan, particularly stirs his wrath because he has passed his 30th birthday and is still deaf to wedding bells, and also spends more time on long skiing weekends with a succession of pretty girls than in helping to move the merchandise.

Performances are Wednesday-Sunday nights at 8:30.

Advance reservations may be made by contacting the Hill Country Arts Foundation in Ingram. Admission prices are $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Tractor-pulling contests boost sales of winners

NEW YORK--For hundreds of thousands of farmers the National Tractor Pulling Championship meet held last month in Louisville is the World Series, the Kentucky Derby and the Indianapolis 500 rolled up into one glorious happening.

For tractor manufacturers this ground-thundering, flame-spitting contest of man and tractor against sleds weighted with concrete blocks can mean the difference between brisk sales and slow turnover.

"Win on Sunday and sell on Monday" has been an auto industry maxim on the way buyers gravitate to the winners of Sunday stock car races.

"Winning a tractor pull is important to us because it helps sales," Richard T. Lindgren, vice president and general manager of Allis-Chalmers' agricultural equipment division, said. "This is especially true in regional contests. After a successful tractor pull, Allis-Chalmers dealers in the area have seen sales go up."

Allis Chalmers must have been pleased with results at the recent Louisville meet. Farmers driving A-C tractors won three of the five major categories and placed second in another.

Tractors race--or pull--on dirt tracks at least 30 feet wide and 200 feet long. Contestants hook up to a heavy, flat-bottom sled and see how far they can pull at speeds no more than 8 miles per hour as weight is added to the sled mechanically. At the start the weight is predetermined. Diesel smoke and fumes fill the arena and blue flames spurt out of the exhaust as weights are added and the sledging gets tougher and tougher.

Aside from sales benefits, such races improve tractors in terms of better fuel use, air systems, cooling capabilities, horsepower, reliability, weight distribution and balance traction. All of which is important to the farmer's productivity and safety as well as the nation's gross national product.

OFF IN A CLOUD OF DUST

Kart races draw hundreds to Air Base

The Memorial Day Championship Enduro Race, held May 27 and 28, at the Municipal Airport in Hondo, brought an estimated 425 people to Hondo to watch 96 entrants from six states race their karts at speeds over 100 m. p. h. around a 2.47 mile course.

Ken Foster, Director of the activities, reported an unexpected touch of drama when Karter Phil Reed of Las Cruces, N. M., stopped his machine midway in a race to report that a fellow competitor's kart had caught fire. There were no injuries, and Reed received the Sportsmanship Award, a 20-inch silver serving platter. Foster commended the Hondo hospitality, citing the Owl Band directed by Bill Harrell as "truly an asset" as they played the National Anthem and other numbers.

Also receiving special recognition from Foster were the Boy Scouts of Hondo and explorer scouts from San Antonio, as the "unsung heroes of the racing event. These young men did an outstanding job with communications, and had a first aid tent for the spectators and Karters."

Receiving compliments were Mayor George Brucks, Chamber of Commerce Exec. Director Harry Filleman, Airfield Mgr. Fritz Leinweber, Hondo Lions Club President Ralph Hauger, and Hondo Police Chief Jerry Williamson.

Official results of the two days of racing are, by class, as follows:

Division 4 Sportsman, Pat Patterson, Oklahoma City, first; Doc Wester, Dallas, second.

I. K. F., Doris Curl, Kerrville, first; Jim Vorderkunz of Waco, second; American Reed Junior, Leroy Wilkerson of Conroe, first, and Phil Brown of Abilene, second.

Stock Junior, Frank Newsum, first, and Leighton Vansickle, second.

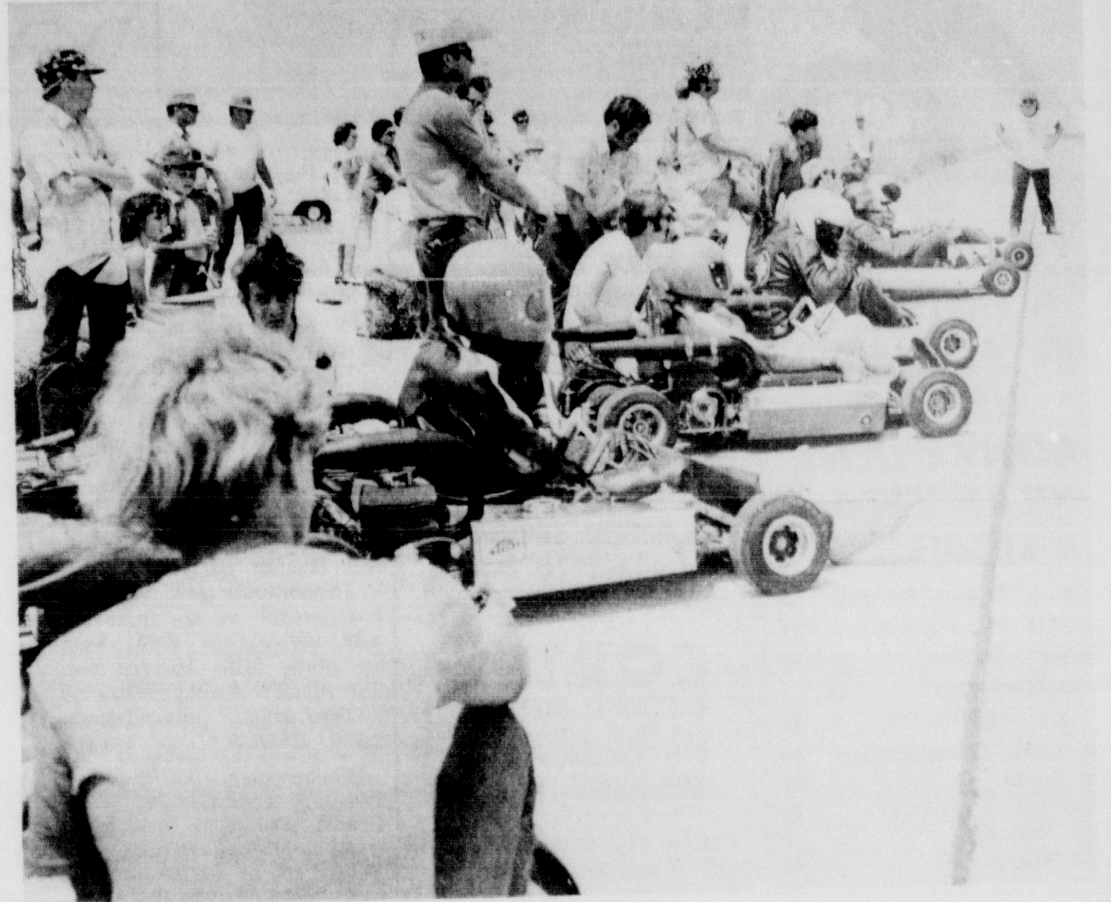

Stock Heavy, C. R. Neely, Kerrville, first, and Ed Pessing of San Antonio, second. Stock Light, Tommy Dunlap of Katy, first, and Darlene Berry of Midland, second.

Open Heavy, Sam Drum of Lubbock, first, and Jimmy Curl of Kerrville, second. Open Light, Gene Renegar of Dallas, first, and Aaron Foster of Big Lake, second.

F. K. E., Pat Patterson of Oklahoma City, first place. Class B Limited, Richard Peck, Waco, first, and Dave Malcolm of Albuquerque, second. B-American Reed, Jim Butt of San Angelo, first, and Ray Morgan of Midwest City, Oklahoma, second. American Reed Heavy, Johnny Teflos of Houston, first, and David McCartney of San Angelo, second. American Reed Light, Phil Harris of Dallas, first and Lynn Dugan, Albany, second.

In Class B Open, Timmy Knight of San Antonio won first and James Berry of Midland finished second.

Class C Open was won by Lowell Howell of Kerrville with Phil Reed of Las Cruces, second.

D'Hanis Cardinals down Eagles

The D'Hanis Cardinals routed the Hondo Eagles by a shutout score of 6-0 in a Sunday baseball game played in D'Hanis. The Eagles were skunked by a combined 5-hit pitching performance by Cardinal hurlers Tomas Gouzales and Chuck Burrell, a-long with 13 hits by Cardinal batsmen.

Opening the bottom of the first inning, Tom Attaway led off with a double, and scored by a long single by Johnny Zinsmeyer.

The Eagles attempted to even the score in the top of the second as Rusty Beard led off with a single. Following Abrego's strikeout, Myron Saathoff also singled. Pitcher David Beard hit into a fielder's choice which cut off Rusty Beard at third. Saathoff, now on second, tried to score on a single by Galindo to right field. He was disappointed as the Attaway combination of right fielder Tom and catcher Rusty conspired to get the ball to the plate several steps ahead of him.

D'Hanis lengthened their lead in their half of the second as Ray Bendele, Greg Rothe and Tomas Gonzales all scored on singles by Bendele, Gonzales, Tom Attaway and Johnny Zinsmeyer, plus a walk to Rothe.

The score remained 4-0 until the 6th, when John Bendele opened with a single. Advanced to second on a grounder by Ray Bendele, he tried to score on a sharp grounder single by Charles Rothe, but was cut off by a well-placed throw by first baseman Rusty Beard to catcher Abrego. Rothe was to score safely on a single by Greg Rothe before the inning closed, however.

The seventh inning ended the Cardinal scoring spree as Johnny Zinsmeyer, on base with a single, advanced to third on Chris Finger's single. He tagged up on a long fly to right by Rusty Attaway and made the score 6-0. Relief pitcher Chuck Burrell, entering the game in the 6th, allowed no hits, to save the victory for Gonzales.

The game gave Cardinal Johnny Zinsmeyer a torrid .476 average to pace the team, which stands 2-5 for the season.

Draft call announced

AUSTIN--The July Draft Call has been announced by Colonel Melvin N. Glantz, State Director of Selective Service for Texas. Men in the 1972 First Priority Selection Group with lottery number 50 or lower will be issued induction orders with reporting dates in July. This Priority Selection Group is made up of men born in Calendar Year 1952 and of men who lose a deferment during Calendar Year 1972.

During April and May, induction orders went up to lottery number 015; during June to 035; and now for July, to 050.

Men with lottery numbers of 90 or lower will be ordered for pre-induction physical examinations during July if they have not yet been examined. The physical examinations are administered to men in the 1972 First Priority Selection Group, also.

Thirty days notice will be given on all induction orders. There is no quota for Texas; however, Colonel Glantz said he expects 400 men to be inducted in Texas.

Daniel J. Prikyrl, Chairman of Local Board No. 48, said two induction orders will be issued by his local board. There will be 21 pre-induction Physical Examination orders issued, also.

Coop training class completes storage room

In January of this year a gas welding short course for adults was held at the Hondo Vocational Agriculture shops.

The instructor spent one session of the short course talking of safe storage of welding bottles when they were not being used. The Hondo vocational agriculture department has a number of oxygen bottles that were secured through surplus properties. The Coop. Training Class started and completed the construction of the storage room in March and April.

Old metal that was removed from the baseball fence was put to use. Five steel pieces of channel iron were set in concrete to form the frame for the storage room. A concrete floor was then poured. Old landing mats were arc welded to the steel up-right post. A tin roof was constructed over the storage area. The final step was scraping off old paint and painting the storage room to blend with the metal post on the walkway connecting the two vocational agriculture buildings.

Most of the arc welding was done by Weldon Honig, John Perez who works with concrete construction in his training station, helped in floating out the concrete floor. The roof was framed and constructed by three or four boys with Henry Flory in charge of that area. His work station dealt with finishing work on new houses being constructed.

All of the 16 coop training students did their share in building the storage room. A base coat of paint was applied by brush and the final coat was sprayed on by Joe Villa whose training coop station work dealt with touch-up painting of cars and pickups.

Pots;pans given Camp Mary Louise

Camp Fire girls from the Tanda group and Iris Bader, leader, give new pots and pans to Camp Mary Louise. The items were purchased jointly by Mrs. Bader and the girls from money left in the treasury at the end of the year.

This is one of the Texas courthouses, a disappearing breed. On the average, two burn or are torn down each year.
